

Agencies Serving Rantoul

4U Rantoul

Phone: (217) 841-2360 or (217) 893-5605

Email: tsaltsgaver@village.rantoul.il.us

Website: <https://www.village.rantoul.il.us/666/Programs>

The Rantoul Police Department has developed the 4U Rantoul Initiative which is committed to providing crisis intervention, advocacy, community outreach, and social service assistance to the community.

Champaign County Health Care Consumers

Phone: (217) 352-6533

Website: <https://www.healthcareconsumers.org/>

An organization that provides help with health care issues, including signing up for insurance, applying for financial assistance, and navigating other health care access problems. Its office is open Monday through Friday from 9am - 5pm.

Champaign County Regional Planning Commission - Homeless Services

Phone: (217) 328-3313

Website: https://ccrpc.org/divisions/community_services/homeless_services.php

If you are experiencing homelessness and live in Champaign County, CIH may be able to connect you to housing or services that can help. When your situation is highest-priority compared to others, you will be offered the housing or service options that you are eligible for as vacancies occur.

You must bring: verification of your homeless situation (for example, an eviction notice or a letter from someone like a case manager or friend stating where you are currently sleeping; it must include the date and their contact information).

You are strongly encouraged to bring: photo ID, social security card(s), birth certificate of minor child(ren), and disability verification (if applicable).

Champaign County Regional Planning Commission - LIHEAP

Phone: (217) 384-1226

Website: https://ccrpc.org/divisions/community_services/low_income_home_energy_assistance.php

We provide assistance for low income families to help pay their energy costs and help educate them to conserve energy. By appointment only, 8 am to 4:30 pm, Monday through Friday.

Champaign County Regional Planning Commission - Senior Services

Phone: (217) 819-4080

Website: https://ccrpc.org/divisions/community_services/senior_services.php

Connects seniors (60+) to a wide variety of community programs by providing case management and referral services. Senior Services staff collaborate with partner agencies to foster healthy aging, safety, and financial, legal, and housing support.

Community Plus Federal Credit Union

Phone: (217) 893-8201

Website: <https://www.cplusfcu.org/>

Community Plus Federal Credit Union helps you to provide the tools you need for financial stability. Their basic toolkit includes the following:

- Certified financial counselors on staff
- A free savings account available with only a $15 minimum balance
- Checking accounts available even for those denied one elsewhere
- Credit Builder loans
- Small dollar loans
- Ride to Work auto loans

Their field of membership is that you must live, work, go to school, or attend church in Champaign, Ford or Piatt counties to qualify.

Community Service Center of Northern Champaign County

Phone: (217) 893-1530

Website: <https://cscrantoul.org/>

We are a non-profit organization dedicated to strengthening our neighbors. We provide essential resources and connect residents to the social services they need. We provide food assistance, utility assistance, holiday toys, prescription assistance, clothing referrals, Kid's Foundation vouchers, information and referrals, and notary services. We also provide office space for various other agencies.

Courage Connection

Office: (217) 352-7151

Domestic Violence Hotline: (217) 384-4390 or (877) 384-4390

Website: <https://courageconnection.org/>

Courage Connection provides housing and supportive services to individuals and families who are victims of domestic violence. Services include:

- Legal services
- Therapy & counseling
- Immigration support
- 24/7 hotline
- Shelter services

All services are free and confidential.

CRIS - Healthy Aging

Phone: (217) 355-1543

Website: <https://agestrong.org/>

CRIS of Champaign County provides options for counseling, information agency referrals, and services to those over 60 and limited services to those under 60 (if disabled). Services include assistance with LIHEAP, Benefits Access Program, Medicare Part D/Supplements, Aging Mastery workshops, access to Medicaid transportation, and distribution of Farmer's Market Coupons.

Crisis Nursery - The Beyond Blue Support Group

24 Hour Crisis Line: (217) 337-2730

Administration: (217) 337-2731

Website: <https://crisisnursery.net/>

The Crisis Nursery offers a chance to help mothers who are at risk for perinatal depression through The Beyond Blue Support Group. With free confidential services, they are funded by the Champaign County Mental Health (708) Board, along with community donations. In addition, Crisis Nursery is open twenty-four seven, three-hundred-sixty-five days a year. In order to ensure clients are getting the best support, mothers and families can join a number of additional support groups such as parent/child interaction groups and crisis care. They also offer home visits and referrals to outside resources pertaining to your family's needs.

Cunningham Children's Home - Vocational Options Program

Phone: (217) 337-9308 OR (217) 337-9047

Website: <https://cunningham.org/services/employment-support-programs/vocational-options-program/>

The Vocational Options Program assists youth and young adults become independent and explore careers, develop job skills, and receive job advocacy and placement. Young adults must fit eligibility requirements listed on website.

Cunningham Children's Home - Housing and Employment Support

Phone: (217) 337-9309

Website: <https://cunningham.org/services/employment-support-programs/echo-homelessness-case-management/>

Empowering Connections through Hope and Opportunities (ECHO) Housing and Employment Support aims to provide comprehensive support for permanent housing and employment.

Don Moyer's Boys and Girls Club

Phone: (217) 355-KIDS

Website: https://www.dmbgc.org/s/?language=en_US

The Club provides programming for children aged 6-18. Programming includes topics such as education, sports & recreation, the arts, health & wellness, workforce readiness, and leadership.

DREAAM

Phone (217) 373-4818

Website: <https://www.dreaam.org/>

DREAAM is an organization founded with the goal of reaching excellence through engagement and behavioral health among boys and young men aged 3-24 years old. produce improved academic outcomes and positive impacts in the lives of boys and young men. Utilizing a Reach, Teach, and Empower method, DREAAM offers parenting programs, youth sports, and mentoring programs among other activities.

GROW in America

Phone: (217) 352-6989

Email: secretary@growinamerica.org

Website: <https://www.growinamerica.org/join-a-group>

GROW in America is an organization that hosts weekly support groups for those struggling with mental health; the GROW mission is to promote mental health recovery, personal growth, and prevention. Groups meet via phone call, Zoom, or in-person. All meetings are free and confidential. To find a group near you, please visit their website.

HopeSprings Counseling Services

Phone: (217) 531-2360

Website: <https://hopespringscu.org/>

Experiencing a difficult life situation? HopeSprings Counseling Services caters to people aged 6-25 while aiming to provide hope and healing. In-person sessions and video appointments are available.

Multicultural Community Center

Phone: (217) 892-4466

Website: <https://mcc-rantoul.org/>

The MCC offers year-round high-quality early childhood education to enable children and families to live healthier and fuller lives. The institution is seeking to provide services to the community in areas of education, cultural arts, recreation, community development, health and social services. The MCC welcomes all community members and celebrates diversity.

New American Welcome Center - University YMCA

Phone: (217) 417-5897

Email: welcome@universityymca.org

Website: <https://nawc.universityymca.org/>

301 S. Vine St., Suite 102, Urbana, IL 61801

The New American Welcome Center works to create a community where all immigrants can thrive. The organization ensures access to services such as immigrant family services, immigration legal services, and community bridge-building.

Parent Wonders

Phone: (217) 356-9176

Website: https://www.dsc-illinois.org/about_us/success_stories.html/article/2024/05/13/parent-wonders

A home visitor will meet with you and your family and explore your parenting goals with you. Some activities/services that your home visitors will provide include:

- Prenatal and postnatal support
- Childcare information
- Medical education
- Education on developmental milestones
- Offer developmentally appropriate activities
- Advocacy and referrals to community resources

To learn more, contact the DSC's Director of Family Development, Jessica Smith, at jsmith@dsc-illinois.org or (217) 356-9176.

Rosecrance Behavioral Health

Walnut St. location: (217) 963-7032

Moreland Blvd. location: (217) 767-4286

Website: <https://www.rosecrance.org/>

Rosecrance counseling services is a program that provides strength-based, culturally responsive behavioral health services for individuals and families. The goal of these services is to improve the quality of life, enhance safety, and promote personal productivity. By appointment only.

The Refugee Center

Phone: 217-344-8455

Website: <https://www.therefugeecenter-cu.org/>

The Refugee Center is a resource that assists all immigrants, political asylees, and refugees, regardless of country of origin. The Center provides social services, mediation services, and language assistance. Translation services are available in Spanish, French, Vietnamese, Pashto, Dari, Urdu, Hindi, and Punjabi, with others available upon request.

Youth Assessment Center

Phone: (217) 239-5933

Website: https://ccrhc.org/divisions/community_services/youth_assessment_center.php

The Youth Assessment Center (YAC) serves as the primary center for intake, screening, and service connection for Champaign County youth and families. Case managers screen at-risk juveniles and link them and their families with the community's support and restorative services. Law enforcement personnel typically make referrals to the YAC as an alternative to prosecution and to prevent further delinquent activities.

Youth and Family Alliance

Phone: (217) 717-4398

Website: <https://ilalliance.org/>

As parents of children with mental health challenges who have been through the system, our staff and Peer Parent Support Partners intimately understand what you're going through and how to ensure better outcomes for children and families. The Alliance offers one-on-one and group support for caregivers and youth aged 10 to 21 in Illinois.